

3 PATHWAYS TO A PROFESSIONAL WELDING CAREER

4 – Year High School Graduate AG Mechanics Classes with American Welding Society
(AWS) Certifications

2—Year Southwest Texas
Junior College Associates
Degree in Welding.

4 —Year High School Honorary Graduate once Core Foundational 26 credits are earned
P-TECH Early College Program resulting in Southwest Texas Junior College Level 1
Certificate in Welding and progressing toward an Associates Degree in Welding .
American Welding Society (AWS) and National Center for Construction Education and Research (NCCER) Certifications

1—Year Southwest Texas Junior College Level 1 Advanced Certificate in Welding.

4 —Year High School Honorary Graduate
once Core Foundational 26 credits are
earned
P-TECH Early College Program resulting in Southwest Texas Junior College Level 1
Certificate in Welding and progressing
toward an Associates Degree in Welding .
American Welding Society (AWS) and
National Center for Construction Education
and Research (NCCER) Certifications

1-1/2—Years Southwest Texas Junior College Associates
Degree in Welding.

Professional Welding Career

